

Introduced by Senators Escutia and Cedillo
(Coauthors: Assembly Members Calderon and Coto)

February 9, 2006

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 92—Relative to nonprofit and philanthropic organizations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 92, as introduced, Escutia. Nonprofit and philanthropic organizations.

This measure would designate the week of March 19 through March 25, 2006, as California Nonprofits and Philanthropy Week.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, One of the great strengths of California is the 2 presence of vigorous nonprofit and philanthropic organizations
3 that provide a private means to pursue public purposes outside 4 the confines of either the market or the state; and

5 WHEREAS, Residents of California have joined together to 6 form over 139,000 nonprofits, including more than 104,000
7 active charitable nonprofits under Section 501(c)(3) of the 8 Internal Revenue Code, 5,900 private foundations, and 26,000
9 religious groups, that employ over 900,000 people and receive 10 and spend over $150 billion per year; and

11 WHEREAS, Nonprofit and philanthropic organizations touch
12 the lives of every person in California by serving people from all 13 walks of life, socioeconomic groups, political orientations, 14 ethnicities, ages, genders, and cultural backgrounds; and

15 WHEREAS, Embraced within the nonprofit sector are some of 16 our state's premier universities, hospitals, symphonies, museums, 17 theaters, and grassroots groups as well as thousands of

1 community organizations that channel our impulses for charity,
2 justice, and compassion to serve the common good and support
3 and empower those in greatest need; and

4 WHEREAS, One-half of all hospital care, most human 5 services, a significant share of higher education, most low-cost 6 housing, almost all arts and culture, and most social justice and 7 environmental programs are provided by nonprofits; and

8 WHEREAS, Over 15 million California residents volunteer 9 three to five hours per week with nonprofit organizations; and

10 WHEREAS, The 5,900 independent foundations, including 15
11 of the nation's largest independent foundations; 100 corporate 12 foundations; and 29 community foundations, including seven of 13 the nation's largest community foundations, with assets of more
14 than $60 billion, annually give $3.6 billion in grants to California 15 nonprofits; and

16 WHEREAS, Nonprofit social service and philanthropic 17 organizations have helped millions of Americans get back on 18 their feet, enabling them to become active, productive citizens;
19 now, therefore, be it

20 Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly
21 thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the 22 importance and value of nonprofit and philanthropic 23 organizations; and be it further

24 Resolved, That the Legislature hereby proclaims March 19
25 through March 25, 2006, as California Nonprofits and 26 Philanthropy Week as presented by the California Association of 27 Nonprofits and its Policy Council; and be it further

28 Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of 29 this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
